Jordan was elected in 2022 as the County of San Diego Assessor/Recorder/County Clerk/Commissioner of Civil Marriage Ceremonies. That year, he had helped San Diego Taxpayers receive an "unprecedented property tax savings" of over $260 million.

He has been recognized as a "San Diego County Taxpayer Watchdog" for his innovative programs that included helping disabled veteran homeowners, and for writing the law that expanded property tax relief for wildfire survivors and victims of natural disasters.

Jordan has helped San Diego seniors save thousands on their property taxes by using Proposition 19's senior exclusion from reassessment.
