GUEST SPEAKER

Rocky Herron

Former DEA Special Agent

Rocky has over 28 years' experience in Law Enforcement and has been presenting to students in school since 2007 about the damaging impact of illegal drug use. Rocky is bilingual and has spoken to over 100,000 young people across seven countries. Rocky is also the San Diego County Office of Education's Drug and Alcohol Ambassador. In his presentation to students, he talks about the impact that drug use has on individuals, the family, the community, as well as on national and international levels. Rocky's powerful school presentations are based on his three decades in law enforcement and as a concerned parent of three daughters.
