Guest Speaker: Sergeant Dustin Nelson

RESPECT Project

RESPECT Project is a character-building and mentoring program for youth in grades 9–12. Dustin is responsible for recruiting and enrolling new RESPECT students, evaluating student progress, arranging meals, transporting students to/from activities, developing and presenting approved curriculum, and managing program volunteers.

He coordinates & participates in RESPECT youth academies, after-school activities, and summer programs including classroom presentations, group discussions, physical fitness, and special events. There is a heavy emphasis on fostering positive, long-term relationships with local youth and families.
